* This deficiency consists of monies appropriated many years ago, out of the Funds in Court, under the authority of various Acts of Parliament, towards the cost of the buildings of the Courts of Law in Dublin, and of a sum of £7,500, viz. £1,250 of £100 each, and £1,250 of £100 each, in the accounts of a former Accountant-General of the Courts of Judicature in Ireland, provided for by Act 22 & 23 Vict. c. 22 (1859), and by Act 31 & 32 Vict. c. 11 (1868). This Unallocated Fund is held for the amount of the deficiency, in the credit of the Funds in Court, being always kept in hand to meet payments to claimants. The liability may however be said to be met.

† This deficiency, which is accounted for by a forced holding of the Unallocated Fund, is the result of a double payment of £4 1s 6d, inadvertently made in 1857 by a former Accountant-General of the Courts of Judicature in Ireland, and an overpayment of one shilling in 1877.
